Peripheral Intervention Summit for Fellows Registration

Take a giant educational leap forward when you attend the Peripheral Interventional Summit for Fellows, an ideal opportunity to learn from experts who will emphasize the practical aspects of peripheral intervention through a case-review format. The course provides an excellent way for interventional cardiology fellows and those in related specialties to deepen their knowledge of non-coronary intervention. Faculty will select the most interesting and challenging cases to keep things exciting, and your willingness to participate during the sessions will help ensure lively interaction. Scholarships are available to all interventional fellows who wish to attend the course, with additional scholarship funding available to those interested in staying on to experience the 19th annual Peripheral Angioplasty and All That Jazz meeting. (The number of available scholarships is limited, so you are encouraged to register as early as possible.)

What: The Peripheral Interventional Summit for Fellows at Peripheral Angioplasty and All That Jazz

When: Tuesday, April 20, 2010

Where: Sheraton New Orleans

How: Register online and submit a letter of status from your program director (instructions below)

Scholarships cover:

- Tuition to the Peripheral Interventional Summit for Fellows
- Travel reimbursement (airfare or alternate ground transportation)
- Hotel accommodations at the Sheraton New Orleans for the night of April 19, 2010
